

Network Presenter

Spotlight Presentation:

Interactive Conversation on Diversity and Inclusion

Lead by Jared Vazquez

MCC Associate Director of International Diversity and Inclusion

The new position of Associate Director of International Diversity and Inclusion expands MCC's ability to lead local congregations, networks, and the global denomination to live into the Core Values of Inclusion, Community, Spiritual Transformation, and Social Action. Jared will develop, implement, and monitor programs that promote diversity and inclusion at the local church, network, and denominational levels. He will also develop training and initiatives to create and foster an open and inclusive environment according to context within key diversity areas.
